

COME ACROSS THE BRIDGE

Fabian Hetteema

They came to the table with an offer so weak. Two percent for twelve months, it's a slap on the cheek.
No room for discussion, no space for a deal. We won't be silenced, we're standing strong and real.

Empty promises won't sway our fight. We're here with conviction, ready to ignite.
Our voices are rising, we won't settle for less. We're demanding the respect that we rightfully possess.

Cross the bridge, and make things right. We demand more, bring us to the light.
Six percent raise, less pressure to bear. Stop stalling now, it's time to show you care.

Our voices are strong, our resolve is tight. We're demanding justice, ready for the fight.
Stand up now, and meet our demands. We're here for change, let's take a stand.

Second round, same old game. Two percent for nine months, just a different name.
No respect, no value, just treating us as costs. But we're the backbone here, and we won't be lost.

We're pushing through the grind, handling the strain. You offer crumbs while we endure the pain.
We've given our all, through sweat and tears. Now it's time to show that you truly hear.

Cross the bridge, and make things right. We demand more, bring us to the light.
Six percent raise, less pressure to bear. Stop stalling now, it's time to show you care.

Our voices are strong, our resolve is tight. We're demanding justice, ready for the fight.
Stand up now, and meet our demands. We're here for change, let's take a stand.

Wages and benefits, they're more than a sum. They're vital to our lives, where we come from.
We need safety at work, security that's real. Not just promises, but a tangible deal.
Training and support, to keep us at our best. Staying fit and healthy, handling the stress.
But you focus on profits, ignore our plight. We've carried the load, now it's time to make it right.

Cross the bridge, and make things right. We demand more, bring us to the light.
Six percent raise, less pressure to bear. Stop stalling now, it's time to show you care.

Our voices are strong, our resolve is tight. We're demanding justice, ready for the fight.
Stand up now, and meet our demands. We're here for change, let's take a stand.

We've had enough, our patience is thin. We'll fight until we finally win.
Respect and value, that's what we deserve. Come across the bridge, it's time to serve.

No more delays, no more empty talk. It's time to stand up, it's time to walk the walk.
We've done our share, now show you care. Come across the bridge, meet us there.

We won't settle for less, we won't accept defeat. We'll keep pushing forward until we succeed.
Come across the bridge, it's time to face. Let's negotiate and end this race.
